Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS.

Chairman Kerr Expresses Confidence in The Result.

BIG GAINS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Van Wyck's Election in New York Looked For—Will Gain Many Democratic Congressmen.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov 7—At democratic congressional headquarters in Washington city, Chairman Kerr yesterday was perfectly confident in regard to the North Carolina election. This confidence is not confined to Mr. Kerr alone, but is shared in by all of his associates at the committee rooms. He is sanguine of the election of at least five democratic representatives to the next house from this state. The election is claimed of Small, in the First district, Kitchin, in the Fifth, Bellamy, in the Sixth, Lovell in the Eighth and Crawford, in the Ninth. It is also claimed now at the democratic headquarters that there is an excellent chance for the defeat of the negro Congressman White, in the Second district. The election of Kitchin and Bellamy is claimed with almost absolute confidence, as is also the defeat of Pearson, the republican representative from the Ninth district. It was thought some days ago that Pearson might pull through, owing to his being an uncle of the hero Hobson, which would tend to gain for him votes on sentimental grounds, but within the past few days the chances for democratic success in the district, it is claimed have brightened considerably and Pearson's defeat by Crawford is now looked for. Persons coming from North Carolina to Washington say that the rumor of federal interference in the state has strengthened the democratic nominees in all of the congressional districts and the reports received here induce the committee to believe that the election in the state may result in a landslide for the democrats. The claim of five districts for the democrats is not the limit of the democratic claims, for some of the leaders express the belief that there will not be a republican elected to the house, unless possibly White may pull through in the Second district.

While the Republican leaders in Washington still adhere to their claim that the election in North Carolina on Tuesday will result in a solid anti-Democratic delegation, it is evident that they are not sincere in these claims, as many of them privately admit that Kitchin, in the Fifth, and Bellamy, will be elected. The only districts which the republicans really feel sure of capturing this year are the First, Second and Ninth. Linney's election is looked for by most of the Republican leaders here, but they couple it with the declaration that the election in that district will be close.

Outside of North Carolina, the Democrats claim the election of a large number of Representatives from Pennsylvania, owing to the feud between Quay and Wanamaker. The election of Van Wyck in New York is looked for, which should carry with nearly a majority of the New York Representatives. The minimum claim at Democratic headquarters is a gain of ten seats in New York State. In Maryland the election of the six Congressmen is claimed, and in West Virginia the election of McGraw is looked for.

A Texas Democrat in the city Saturday, while speaking of the rumor that federal troops would be sent into North Carolina on Tuesday is quoted as saying that if federal troops were sent into his State the Texans would "eat them up and cry for more."

A gentleman from North Carolina, was seen at the Metropolitan Hotel Sunday afternoon. In conversation he stated that the speeches of Senator Daniel, of Virginia, had greatly helped the Democrats in the State. The speeches of the Senator have been conservative and logical, he said, and to his own personal knowledge many republicans have been converted by hearing them, and will vote the Democratic ticket.

Saturday afternoon, some handsome chrysanthemums from the Propagating Gardens, were distributed among the newspaper carrespondents of Washington by Superintendent of Public Buildings and grounds, Bingham. The flowers were very large and beautiful, and greatly appreciated.

Thomas F. Brandly, of South Carolina, formerly a chief of a division in the Treasury Department was at the Ebbitt House Sunday. He says that South Carolina will elect a solid delegation to Congress without a doubt. The result is so certain, he says that many of the leading men of the State have gone to North Carolina to help their sister State shake off the incubus of black domination.

Mrs. W. H. Hoffman, and daughter, Miss Nancy, of North Carolina, are in Washington, enroute home. They stopped over Sunday at the St. James Hotel.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has in press, and will soon issue a bulletin entitled the "Chinch Bug: Its probable origin and diffusion, its habits and development, natural checks and remedial and preventive measures, with mention of the habits of an allied European species." The Bulletin states that this pest first made its presence known in this country in North Carolina, in 1873.

BUSINESS CLOSES TOMORROW.

Merchants, Bankers and Others will Work for White Supremacy.

The list of business men who will close their business houses tomorrow was circulated this morning and was signed by a large number of those who did not sign it when circulated before. In fact nearly every business man in town has signed it and will close tomorrow to work for white supremacy. Let those who do not see the list close anyway and work as they have never worked before. This election means much to the business men of the whole State and more interest is aroused than in any election ever held in the Old North State. The work tomorrow will settle whether the white people of the East shall remain under negro domination or whether the Anglo-Saxon shall rule North Carolina. Vote, you have a voice in the answer. For whom will you cast your vote?

SERVICES AT GRACE LAST NIGHT.

Entertaining and Instructing Exercises by the Childrdn.

Perhaps the largest congregation ever assembled in Grace M. P. church, attended the services there last night. Certainly the congregation was never larger, for all the standing room was taken, and many turned away.

The services were conducted by the Junior Epworth League of the church, and were entertaining and instructive throughout. The children reflected great credit upon themselves and their trainers, by their splendid singing and reciting. The singing by the choir, composed almost entirely of children, is seldom equaled.

The use of the stereopticon was an experiment, though the instrument was manipulated by Rev. T. M. Johnson, very successfully. The twelve views from "Ten nights in a bar room" were excellent.

There is no church in town perhaps, where every member of the congregation is more conscious of duty and tries harder to perform it. The congregation of Grace is especially arrayed against intemperance and every member is doing something to help the cause of Christ.

We asked one of our customers the other day if he didn't want to buy something in the way of woollen underwear. He replied, "You know those suits I bought of you." We said "Yes, but that was two years ago," to which he replied, "Yes, but they are all right yet, and I'm going to wear them again this winter." We are still selling this same line of underwear, positively the best winter underwear ever sold in this city at the remarkably low price of two dollars a suit, or one dollar each for shirt and drawers. THE WHITES ARE JUSTIFIED

In Resenting The Present Situation In This State,

SAYS THE WASHINGTON POST.

The Belief Expressed That They Will Put an End to it in Tomorrow's Election.

Let every voter read the following, taken from the Washington Post, in regard to the situation in this state!

We offer no predictions as regards the race crisis in North Carolina, further than to express the opinion that the whites are fully justified in their resentment against the existing situation and the belief that, in oneway or another, they will put an end to it on Tuesday next. As we have already explained in a previous article on this subject, the tax-paying, property-holding classes in the state are repeating the experiences of thirty years ago and as one may easily conclude in the light of past events, they will emerge from them by the same methods and with the same results.

It is all very well for the people of the North and East, dwelling under the operations of a secure conservatism, their local interests wisely administered and their property and their civilization beyond the reach of peril—it is all very well for these people to hold up their hands in pious horror at the mere mention of violence and to deplore the so-called wickedness now rampant at the south. But we should like to call their attention to the predicament of one county (Craven) in North Carolina, and to ask them how they would relish a similar condition of affairs at home. Our letter from there published in Saturday's edition of the Post says:

"There is no question that this is a negro-ridden county. The list of negro office-holders includes the Register of Deeds, two Deputy Registers of Deeds, four Deputy Sheriffs, Coroner, four constables, twenty-seven magistrates, county commissioners, one member of the board of education, thirteen school committeemen, three road overseers, city attorney, three city aldermen, and four policemen. The present representative of the county in the legislature is a negro, who has been convicted of forgery, and who is again a candidate for the same place, while a majority of the other officers on the ticket are also negroes."

Here we find in a county whose total population is 12,000, sixty-six negro officials, one of them a convicted felon, and the others indelibly stained by associating with and recognizing him as a suitable person to hold office. The whites own ninety-five hundreds of the property, pay the same proportion of the taxes, and represent practically all the culture, civilization and intelligence. But it appears that in nearly every respect in which their most important interests are affected by local government, they are at the mercy of negro officials who have nothing to lose by anarchy and who stand for nothing in the social scheme. Of course the people of no county in Massachusetts or Pennsylvania would ever have permitted the calamity to attain such a a sinister development. At the first menace of negro domination in politics, they would have ushered in the regime of self-protection and killed the evil at its root. They know this to be true, whatever they may say to the contrary under their present sense of safety. The white people throughout the country know it is true, and we know they know it. The question is not debatable.

Just how the situation has been brought about, we shall not now stop to consider. That the whites are largely to blame, we do not dream of denying. But the facts exist, and we can easily believe that they create a prospect which no intelligent and responsible citizen of North Carolina—be he Republican or Democrat—can bring himself to tolerate. Party enthusisam, greed of office, the tricks of frowsy demagogues, the recklessness of fools and knaves—these motives will always push their victims to greater or less extremes of action. But there is a limit to even the most vicious tendencies of man, and that limit appears to have been reached in North Carolina. It has become necessary, after twenty years of uninterrupted peace and Christian civilization, to teach the Southern negroes that they cannot rule over the property and the destinies of the superior race, and that lesson will be taught on Tuesday next, we solemnly believe. It is our conviction, moreover, that the teachers will have the sympathy and approval—whether avowed or unavowed—of the whites throughout the land.

SITUATION SERIOUS.

Col. Elliott, of Wilmington Says Trouble May Occur.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 7—Col. Warren G. Elliott, of Wilmington, president of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, says the situation is serious in the eastern section of North Carolina. Trouble will occur if the whites and blacks come together in Wilmington or Newbern. The whites are thoroughly aroused and are prepared for the worst if it comes to blows. Greenville and Kinston also have race troubles.

TRYING TO SAVE TEN VOTES.

Pronounced Illegal by the Election Judges Saturday.

It was assumed that Judge R. M. Douglas, of the supreme court of North Carolina, returned to Greensboro to vote, but it would seem this is not altogether so, as he today cited the registrars of precinct No. 4 Gilmer township, to appear before him at Chambers, this afternoon at five o'clock, to so show cause why ten negroes whose names were stricken from the books last Saturday should not be restored. G.W. Armfield, republican chairman, is made plaintiff in the above cause. Let it go; there is a day of retribution near at hand.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Nov. 7

A negro went into the "New York Racket" store Saturday night and tried to hide a pair of pants under his coat, when Mr. Owens walked up to him and feeling of his coat, as clothiers often do, remarked; "I have a coat back here that will just fit you." When he did this he saw the pants under his coat. The negro simply offered Mr. Owens a "dry grin," and said, "I wus jes jokin wiv you."

Last night in the waiting room at the depot while W. R. Richardson, city engineer of Greensboro, was talking on the "all important question," Mr. Richardson made mention of the negro on the republican ticket in Morehead township that was running for township constable, when Ed. L. Ragan, republican candidate for clerk denied that there was a negro on the ticket. Upon this denial Mr. Richardson drew a little nearer and named the negro, and asked "Ed" if he was not nominated by the county convention. "Ed" said yes. Mr. R. said, "Didn't you vote for him?" "Ed" said yes. Mr. R. said, "Is he not running now?" "Ed" said yes. Poor "Ed," we feel for him but cannot reach him.

Last week's issue of the High Point Enterprise was one of the most interesting sheets that has as yet been printed by them. It contained almost verbatim the speeches of the candidate who spoke here the day before, as well as all other news of interest. Tomorrow night they will give to the public, free of charge, the returns from the election. Mr. Fariss is ever willing to respond to the demands of the people, though it be at a considerable cost to him.

Three votes were challenged in the lower precinct Saturday, and only one "knocked out." Five were challenged in the upper precinct; three were "knocked out."

Ed. L. Reagan was here yesterday. "Ed" says he expects to get 650 majority. That is 350 under the number he said a week ago he expected.

TERRIFIC GAS EXPLOSION.

Wrecks The Capitol Building in Washington,

LATE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Greatest Damage Was Done To The Supreme Court Room and Records in Marshal's Office.

A despatch sent out from Washington last night says:

At 5:23 o'clock a heavy explosion, which was heard several blocks from the Capitol, took place, and immediately afterwards flames burst from the windows of the Congressional Law Library in the basement, and a few moments later from the supreme court room.

The supreme court room and the rooms immediately adjoining on the main floor of the Capitol were totally wrecked by fire. The money damage is extensive, but far more than that will be the loss to the Congressional Law Library. The Library was located directly beneath the supreme court room. It contained 20,000 volumes, and its value was estimated at over $1,000,000. A great many of the volumes were destroyed by fire or the floods of water poured into the Capitol.

The fire is believed to have resulted from a gas explosion, caused by a leakage of the meter, right by the elevator shaft in the corridor leading to the law library from the rotunda. Assistant Engineer Prescott, of the Senate, was seen. There was a gas meter, he said, four feet in diameter, located below the Supreme court chamber. He said he had definitely ascertained that it was the meter which had exploded.

LATER NEWS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The work of clearing away the debris at the capitol, the result of yesterday's explosion and fire began today. An examination of the supreme court room to which the fire was confined showed the walls and ceilings are discolored and the carpets are soaked, but no serious damage.

The benches occupied by the supreme court judges, are uninjured, and even briefs, which were left by some of the judges under paper weights were uninjured. The windows and sash of the fine old colonial windows flanking the judges bench are in total ruins, however. The frescode ceilings are blurred and spotted and the carpets are soaked.

The personal effects of the judges, robes, etc., are uninjured. The main loss is in the Marshal's office and the storage rooms where valuable old records were kept. The extent of this last loss is not yet exactly determined, but court officials expect to make a critical examination today.

"HONEST ELECTIONS."

The very few Populists who have remained with the fusion crowd say the populists have interests in common with the republicans of North Carolina. Mr. Stratford said that was the reason they co-operated. Chief among the "interests in common," as given out publicly, is a solemn and long-faced cry of "honest elactions.

Let's look at it a moment. The Legislature (fusion) of 1895 passed a new election law. It was amended by another fusion legislature in 1897. It was framed and passed as a sequel to the campaign cry of fusion orators for a "free ballot and a fair count." Many honest white men were induced to vote the fusion ticket because they were made to believe there was corruption in the management of elections. All this the fusionists promised to remedy. There was to be no more cerruption, and under the fusion election law (which, by the way, is a jewel) there would hereafter be peace and harmony—registration would be correct, and there could not even be any attempt at fraud.

Well, what has been the result? Take our four city precincts and determine who is in favor of "honest elections." The machinery in the hands of the fusionists, manipulated under their own made-to-order law, the democrats discovered and had the names of SIXTY-TWO illegal voters stricken from the books, while not one illegally registered democrat was found.

Two men whom Mr. Bradshaw admitted he advised to register, were not legal voters and were marked off. Others were registered in more than one precinct. Yet, men who advise men not entitled to vote to make the attempt, cry loudly from the stump, "honest elections."

Mr. Stratford, which do you sincerely believe is the honest party, and who, does it strike you, is attempting to perpetrate fraud in this election?

TOMORROW'S BATTLE.

The memorable campaign of 1898 is fast drawing to a close and with the rise of tomorrow's sun the lines of battle will be formed. To which army do you belong? Will you cast your lot with the great white army of Anglo-Saxons or will you disgrace your race by lining up with the black array of the republican party? Will you consent to be a tally mark for four negroes?

The campaign has been one of aggression on the part of the democrats and one of trickery and dodging on the part of the fusionists or republicans, whose speakers have attempted to belittle and ridicule the issues on which the campaign has been made. One of the strongest points in evidence of their utter failure to side-track the burning issue is to be found in the columns of almost every newspaper of prominence in the United States. The battle of ballots in North Carolina is attracting almost as much attention throughout the nation as did the prospect of war between England and France.

And why? Because it is a struggle for the supremacy of the white man over the black man. People everywhere are looking on with interest. Newspapers from the lakes to Florida, from the Atlantic ocean far into the west are writing columns about the situation here, and, irrespective of politics, are wishing the white people success. Republicans from the north visit the state and say openly: "I could not be a republican here." And how any man can ally himself with the negroes against his own race is a problem we are not able to solve. How any man can vote the republican ticket in Guilford county when a vote for that ticket is an endorsement of negro rule is more than we can comprehend?

You say it is not an endorsement of negro rule? Isn't it a fusion ticket. Isn't negro rule the offspring of the fusion of the same forces two and four years ago that compose the fusion party now? If such a direful calamity as the election of Bradshaw, Douglas and Forbis should befall Guilford county would not their votes in the legislature be cast to continue negro domination in the east? How do we know they would not so gerrymander Greensboro that negroes would hold office here? If they are elected they will have to stand up to the fusion policy and the negroes will have to be rewarded for their votes.

White men do your duty on tomorrow. Give a rousing majority in old Guilford for lecency and white government.

WHITE MEN UNITED.

Engaged in a Holy War—Doing God's Service.

As the day of the North Carolina election approaches the closer and more unanimous becomes the union of the white men of that state, the stronger grows their determination to redeem it from the misrule of ignorance and vice. The leaders of the white man's party have declared that they intend to carry the state and they will do it. It is a question with them of rescuing North Carolina or moving out of it. Life in that state would be intolerable to decent citizens if the gang now in control of North Carolina should continue in power. No man could feel that his wife and children were safe to say nothing of his own personal rights of liberty and property.

The men who hold state offices in North Carolina, from the governor down, with few exceptions, are not to be trusted. They are corrupt, vicious and despotic. They are robbing the state, insulting and oppressing its people. They have established a condition of affairs which has caused the intelligence and virtue of the state to lay aside all minor difference and make a stand for safe and honest government.

The white men of North Carolina are fighting ignorance and vice in office as they would fight a fire at sea or a burglar in their homes. With that grim and relentless determination which only the peril of their dearest interests can arouse these men have vowed themselves to the restoration of decency and honor in public pieces. They are engaged in a holy war and are doing God's service.

How, then, can they stand apart on account of difference on the currency question and the tariff? These things are but rubbish in comparison with what the white men of North Carolina are battling for. They are banded together to protect and preserve what is best and highest in life and to win their essential victory they will cast to the winds all minor issues and opinions. —Atlanta Journal.

Many thievees recently driven out of New York are flocking back for the winter, and an unusal number of robberies are reported.

Late to bed and early to rise, prepares a man for his home in the skies. But early to bed and a Little Early Riser, the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser. Howard Gardner.

A MATTER OF NOSES.

Dr. Bodenheimer Glad His Preacher Is All Right.

Editor Telegram: The Davidson County News of Nov. 3d, says: "Isaac Jones, a preacher of Dr. L. I. Bodenheimer's denomination, preached in Pilot Mountain last Sunday morning and night, and after each sermon delivered a Bodenheimer harangue on the negro."

We are glad to know that that able and popular preacher is all right on politics as well as religion. It certainly is required of every gospel minister to cry against corruption of all kinds, whenever and wherever found. It certainly depends on which tribe a man is of, the sharp nose or the flat nose tribe, as to which he prefers to rule as priest, prophet and law-giver over him.

Isaac Jones is of, and belongs to the sharp nose tribe, and therefore is for keeping the law of Moses, when we are choosing men to rule as priest in every branch of government. Even Moses, when he gave command to Aaron, forbade any one with a flat nose from being a leader or ruler in Israel. See Leviticus 12:18, and as this is a race issue to be settled on the 8th of November, by every man presenting his nose at the ballot-box for sharp or flat nose rule, Isaac Jones and L. I. Bodenheimer will present two sharp noses for "white supremacy," and leave the Davidson County News to deposit the kind of nose that suits his fancy best, sharp or flat.

The Davidson County News has skipped the nose issue and goes back fifty three years and digs up an old throat issue that he says "happened recently in the State of Georgia" of two men cited to trial, one charged with drunkenness and the other with joining the temperance society. This noted trial he says was before a "hard shell church," and said church convicted the man that joined the temperance society, and released the drinking man. Well, Mr. Editor, I know of no such church as you have named, but if the issue was a throat issue I would suppose the man who used his throat would gain the suit. But the run next Tuesday is a race issue and depends not on throats but upon eyes and noses, sharp or flat, and I shall stick in one sharp white nose for white supremacy.

Will the editor send me a copy of what he did say about the "High Point Democratic Club."

L. I. Bodenheimer.

SWEEPING VICTORY PREDICTED.

The Next Legislature Will be Safely Democratic.

Raleigh, N. C., November 5.—Chairman F. M. Simmons, of the State Democratic Committee, when asked what he had to say about the situation and result next Tuesday, replied as follows:

"Why, the situation is simply superb, the outlook is glorious. Our organization all over the State is almost perfect. Our people are aroused to the highest pitch of enthusiasm and determination. They are going into this fight with the zeal and spirit of one who knows his cause is just and will triumph. There is going to be the greatest political revolution that has ever taken place in the State. We will have a sweeping victory.

THE ENTIRE STATE.

"Our entire State ticket will be elected by a large majority and will elect both branches of the Legislature—the House by a large majority and the Senate by a good, safe working majority. I have received polls of the vote from all parts of the State, and there is no doubt about our success. Nobody knows this better than our enemy. While our people are jubilant and confident the enemy has been growing more and more despondent for three weeks, and now, right on the eve of the election, they are manifestly hacked and hopeless. They try to conceal it, but cannot. Everybody sees it; everybody knows it. Although there was a large majority against us to overcome, yet it was impossible for the fusionists to win with the record of extravagance, corruption, fraud and negroism that they have made during the last two years. It was simply impossible that the honest and intelligent people of North Carolina should desire this condition to continue or by their vote endorse them."

IN PRITCHARD'S COUNTY.

It Is Said a Negro Is Not Permitted to Live There.

The New York Herald of yesterday contained a lengthy article from its representative in this state, from which we make the following extract:

"In the extreme west negroes are scarce, and in Senator Pritchard's county, Mitchell, there is not a negro. That county gives a larger white republican majority than any in the State, yet Senator Pritchard's nephew told me a negro is not permitted to live there. There are eastern white republicans who say: 'I see that we must eliminate the negro or else our party is ruined.'" Dr. D. H. Abbott, a railway commissioner, a northern man, and one of the brightest republicans in the State, said this to me The concensus of opinion is that the negro as a voter is an incubus to the republican party. It is the opinion of most white men that he is as office holder as incubus to the State. And yet Geo. White, the only negro republican in Congress, in a most aggressive speech here said his people were only beginning to hold office, and that the negro accepted the gage of battle for supremacy. Such was the tone of the speech that a republican from Iredell, a western county, said White could not have made it there.

"The centre in this great fight as to whether the white man shall govern is the section east of Raleigh. There are also some of the southern tier of counties in which the white men have risen up in protest against the existing order of things. The call for white men to stand together is sweeping populists back into the democratic party. More than this; it is sweeping republicans, too. A. S. Peace, of the Populist State Committee, told me that in his section it is affecting republicans even more than populists."

From New Zealand.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896.

I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

Making Gains Everywhere.

We have our enemies on the run and all that is necessary to annihilate them is for every patriot to do his whole duty from now until the sun sinks below the western horizen next Tuesday.—Wadesboro Messenger,

On a Political Tear.

Henry Donnell, colored, didn't have his vote challenged Saturday, and must have been surprised and happy, for he tanked up on tanglefoot, reviewed his vocabulary of cuss and other words and set out on a tear. He reviewed the political situation and said the pocadot (black and white dots) ticket would win. When he had showed that the State would go republican by an overwhelming majority he was too full to say much more and started home. But his feet moved erratically as he wended his homeward way and Henry came to the pavement with a length-reducing thud. When a policeman found him he was sitting on the sidewalk talking to himself about what a strange thing the moon was.

Henry said this morning that he worked for John A. Young and asked that Mr. Young be informed of his whereabouts to relieve his uneasiness.
